

WEEKLY IMAGE

I scream, you
scream, we all scream
for B & B's ice cream

A NOTE FROM THE DEAN:

This year we're focusing on being made in God's image, but what does it mean to look like something that we've never actually seen? God's given each of us a physical and a spiritual side to who we are. Just like we can change how we look physically through things like exercise or a new 'do, we can change how we look spiritually through the things that we invest in. It is through getting to know God in times of prayer, solitude, and reading scripture that we learn who God is and how to reflect his true image.

IMAGE OF THE WEEK WHERE ON CAMP WAS THIS PICTURE TAKEN?

LET JEREMY OR MEGIN KNOW WHERE YOU THINK THIS PICTURE WAS TAKEN. THE FIRST ONE TO ANSWER CORRECTLY GETS A FREE SLUSH PUPPY FROM THE HITCHING POST.

Dear Grian Bertler,

Sometimes it is very hard to work with Bill. He is so humble and kind, that he ends up making the rest of us look bad. What should I do?

Sincerely, Not Jeremy

Dear Not,

I feel your pain. I worked with him for literally 2 minutes and I felt like a real jerk. Bill is a really nice guy so I recommend using some strategy in this situation. Make sure you try to make everything he says sound inappropriate or vulgar, or both! Say he says something like, "Hey Alec your doing a great job. Keep up the good work!" Your response should be, "Oh! I guess everyone else besides Alec is doing a mediocre job and we're all idiots! Is that what you're saying Bill?!"

Also, if you feel like Bill is trying to rush everyone to pray before dinner, don't be afraid to point it out to others that Bill likes to eat only puppies so he should have no rush to get to the serving lines.

I hope this works ;)

Grian Bertler

HIS CREATION'S CREATIONS:

Welcome back you motley crew
It has been a long time
We have sincerely missed you.

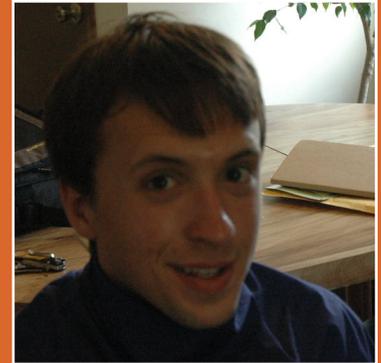

This first week goes very fast
Yet the summer is young
So make some friends that last

Our creative God does create
We're made in His image
So see what what you can make

Submit a poem, or 3, or 4
A riddle, a drawing
So we all can adore

In our offerings He takes delight
As long as we create it
With all of our might

If you have a creative work and would like to share it, please tell Megin or Jeremy. It doesn't matter what it is; we can take a picture or make a copy and put it in the weekly newsletter.

Staff Outing

As par tradition, our first outing for the summer will be a waltz over to Portage for a round of bowling and a classy dinner at Pizza Hut. There is no better way to blow your first paycheck of the summer. Don't forget your socks!